

Accessibility in Nova Scotia

Access
includes everyone

9 out of 10
Nova Scotians know
that accessibility
is a human right

of Nova Scotians say that accessibility is very important
to them

Nova Scotians rate
the level of accessibility as 6.1 out of 10
in the area they live

Source: Public opinion research survey conducted by telephone March 2024

- ▶ 9 out of 10 Nova Scotians know that accessibility is a human right
- ▶ 71% of Nova Scotians say that accessibility is very important to them
- ▶ Nova Scotians rate the level of accessibility as 6.1 out of 10 in the area they live